

Ten questions about saints that came up during dinner with my Catholic relatives:

1. Do saints gossip about each other?
2. Is there an org chart for saints?
3. Is there a saint review process? Does the Holy Trinity go over each saint's work plan annually?
4. Do saints have a work plan?
5. In heaven, do the saints get the offices with the doors and the rest of us have to be in cubes?
6. Do Matthew, Mark, Luke and John get the corner offices?
7. Is there a "Saint of the Month" program?
8. When, in the '60s, a number of saints were defrocked, was there a severance plan? Or did a guard stand there as they put their stuff in a cardboard box?
9. Do they take turns cleaning out the break room refrigerator? Is there a signup sheet?
10. Do saints drink coffee?

--Bill Burleson

www.williamburleson.org